

Contra Costa Elder Abuse Prevention Project

We can help with:

- Financial Abuse
- Physical Harm
- Mental Health
- Legal Services
- Case Management
- Emotional Support
- Help with Meals
- Restraining Orders
- Nursing Home & Hospice Support

Have Questions?
 Call: (925) 521-6366
 or (510) 974-7200

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What do you do?

-We help families affected by interpersonal violence (domestic violence, sexual assault, elder abuse, child abuse, and human trafficking) by pairing them with a navigator who can connect them to over 40 community and public partners.

Do you have lawyers?

-Yes, we have lawyers who help with Family Law, Restraining Orders, and Immigration Law. If you have a interpersonal violence issue, your consultation is free.

How do I get a restraining order?

-Come talk to us, we can help you file a restraining order and explore other safety options.

Do you speak Spanish?

-Yes, we speak Spanish, Lao, Thai, and Korean. We also can get an interpreter to help you in almost any language, including ASL!

Do I have to talk to the police?

-No, you do not have to talk to anyone you do not want to talk to. Your navigator will tell you about all of our partners and you get to choose which ones you work with.

Do you help men?

-Yes, we welcome all gender identities, sexual orientations, and gender expressions.

FAMILY JUSTICE CENTER
 SAFETY | HEALING | COMMUNITY

Visit us
Monday to Friday
9:00am — 5:00pm

West Center

256 24th Street
 Richmond, CA 94804
 (510) 974-7200

Central Center

2151 Salvio Street, Suite 201
 Concord, CA 94520
 (925) 521-6366

East Center

Coming soon!

Visit us anytime at:

 COCOFAMILYJUSTICE.ORG

 cocoelderjustice.org

CRISIS SUPPORT

Navigation, a client works with a trained and culturally competent Navigator who serves as the client's single and trusted point of contact for connections to community resources;

Lawyers for Family Justice, a legal incubator providing free consultations for clients—expanded to 10 lawyers; and Healing Conversations, counseling support for survivors.

The Family Justice Center helps families affected by domestic violence, sexual assault, elder abuse, child abuse, and human trafficking.

LONG-TERM SAFETY PROGRAMS

WINGS (Women INspired to Grow and Succeed), a financial self-sufficiency and leadership skills-building class for survivors (English and Spanish cohorts);

Family Happiness Program, where families can meet with a licensed early childhood mental health specialist about their young child's mind, development and happiness;

Success Academy, provides support to students who need a space to do school projects;

Mentes Positivas, a course providing tools for clients to reduce stress and depressive symptoms;

Triple P Parenting, a class providing parents with simple and practical strategies to help them build healthy relationships, confidently manage their children's behavior, and prevent problems from developing; and Healing Yoga, a gentle yoga hosted by Karma Yoga, appropriate for beginners, seniors, and even kids.

COMMUNITY BUILDING

Community Fellowship Program, a stipended Fellowship in which survivors of violence develop their leadership skills while creating their own projects to support others in their community;

Camps, week-long summer camp and winter day camp, for children who have been impacted by violence;

Project Connect, an initiative to engage residents, survivors, and community partners to increase community awareness of IPV and improve communication among stakeholders;

Family Justice Institute, a program which offers workshops and trainings on topics related to IPV to build capacity for service providers and the community;

Countywide Trainings for Law Enforcement, to help law enforcement officers identify and handle cases of interpersonal violence - we are the lead agency organizing and coordinating these trainings in Contra Costa County; and

Run for Family Justice, a running team to promote health and community yearly.