PITTSBURG POLICE DEPARTMENT TRAINING OVERVIEW

SGT. KYLE BAKER, PITTSBURG POLICE DEPARTMENT

Today's Discussion:

- Department Training Overview
- POST Mandated Training
- 2023-2024 (Current Training Cycle)
- Q and A

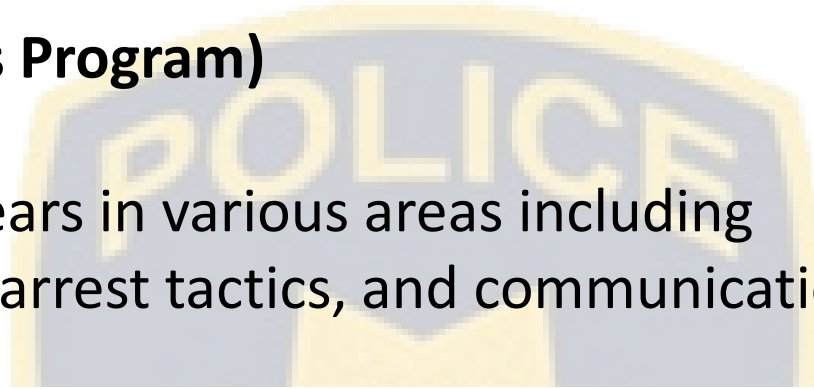

Department Training Overview:

- (6) dedicated training days a year (in house)
- Periodic briefing trainings and training bulletins
- Primary focus on California Peace Officer Standards and Trainings (POST) required training
- Constantly sending Officers to outside training which focuses on a variety of topics, instructor roles, trends, and development.

CA POST PSP (Perishable Skills Program)

-18 required hours every (2) years in various areas including firearms, use of force, driving, arrest tactics, and communications.

The five (5) categories of courses included in the PSP are:

Category I	Tactical Firearms	4 hour minimum
Category II	Driver Training/Awareness	4 hour minimum
Category III	Arrest & Control	4 hour minimum
Category IV	Strategic Communications	2 hour minimum
Category V	Use of Force	4 hour minimum

120 Hours Every 2 Years

Our Two Year Training Cycles:

- We train 120 hours every 2 years.
- Topics include all those discussed in the PSP's plus: Less lethal force options, scenario based training, search and seizure, de-escalation, first aid/CPR and more.
- We use many training sites such as the police department, MOTCO base, our range facility, and more.
- Our instructors are motivated and trained via in house training and advanced Officer schooling.

Current 2023-2024 Training Cycle

- We are a little over halfway through our current (2) year cycle.
- All PSP's have been completed, with driving planned next month.
- In 2023, we focused on de-escalation and use of force training.
- In 2023, we conducted a multi month active incident training plan including classroom training, medical training, and scenarios.
- In December/January, the Museum of Tolerance provided all PPD Officers with their "Beyond Diversity Program," and racial profiling update, which is a every 5 year POST requirement.
