CAPTURE A DREAM THE POWER OF 24 BY GREGORY CANTRELL

G.D. Cantrell: After growing up in Berkeley, California and eventually traveling a journey which took him through becoming a professional athlete, He's enjoyed experiences as a corporate executive, professional athlete, entrepreneur, and patent holding inventor.

The recently completed 3-year journey of writing this book CAPTURE A DREAM: The Power of 24 based on some of his experiences during his life's journey of major missteps and failures, achievements, some historical and contemporary topical issues in our society relative to making him the person the Renaissance man he is today.

With this story he shares from heartfelt experiences amidst many environments and adversities to hopefully lift others to see there is always hope when your inner strength is empowered.

Cantrell holds a BA in Applied Studies/Organizational Leadership and currently in graduate school seeking his masters in Business Management.

THE UNEXPECTED RING BY NANCY PAULINO

Don't Settle When It Comes to Love

The Unexpected Ring is based on the true story of one woman's journey to find love. In this heart-felt book, Anna, who grew up in a loving Italian family, falls in love and marries a sexy and funny, yet troubled man. She finds her life being shaped by addiction, death, betrayal, and eventually a younger man.

Anna's heart continues to break as she falls further away from her dream of that happy family. Anna continues to hold on to life's gifts, and is thrown curves she never expected. Her spiritual belief in a universe capable of providing her with what she desires helps her survive the series of explosive events that shape her life. Was there a purpose for everything Anna has encountered?

"Filled with characters you'll care about long after you've finished the last page, The Unexpected Ring is as touching as it is entertaining. A great read, not to be missed." – Paul Montgomery, Editor

WHAT HAPPENED TO SUZY BY CAROL DENISE MITCHELL

What Happened to Suzy

Carol Denise Mitchell(1955-) was born the sixth of sixteen children to Zebbie and Tasceaie Charles, in Los Angeles, California. In 1977 the author moved to the Bay Area to launch an impressive thirty-year writing career that includes eight publications. Ms. Mitchell wrote "What Happened to Suzy," winning praise for its' message of healing and hope. Carol was featured as an "Author Your Should Know," in the African American Literature Book Club, (aalbc) 2006 Newsletter and was also featured in the Oakland Post Newspaper April, 2009, Ebony and Upscale Magazines. She was recently inducted into the impressive catalog of The Celebration of Women Writers, that catalogs writers going back as far as the 16th century.

Ms Mitchell's new book Michael Jackson, The Love He Saved is sold internationally, and is currently a bestseller on Ebay. Buyers favor Mitchell's growing spectrum of books throughout the country and abroad for versatility and for Ms. Mitchell's extraordinary writing originality and flair.
