1. Request for Commemorative Street Naming of the Northernmost Segment of Crestview Drive in Honor of Lahori Ram

City staff has received a request to ceremonially rename Crestview Drive, between East Leland and Frontage roads, in honor of Lahori Ram. Prior to his passing in 2009, Mr. Ram was a prominent real estate investor who served on California's Economic Development; Transportation; and Technology, Trade and Commerce commissions. Locally, he was founder of the first Shri Guru Ravidass Temple in North America, which is located at 2150 Crestview Drive, along the segment of Crestview Drive that is being requested for ceremonial renaming. The subcommittee is asked to make a recommendation to the City Council on the request.

2. Electronic Readerboard Proposal on the Southwest Quadrant of Railroad Avenue and State Route 4

The owner of the property occupied by Mi Pueblo grocery store has proposed to place an electronic readerboard on the north side of the property and requests preliminary feedback from the subcommittee on his proposal.

3. Project Updates

- a. Ongoing Park Planning Efforts for San Marco and Old Town
- b. WesPac Pittsburg Terminal
- c. Potential Development of 12.5-acre Property on Pittsburg/Antioch Highway
- d. Other Projects
